The Sun for 1881.

Everybody reads THE SON. In the editions of this newspaper throughout the year to come every body will find: i. All the world's news, so presented that the reader will get the greatest amount of information with the least unprofitable expenditure of time and eyesight. The Sun long ago discovered the golden mean between redundant fullness and unsatisfactory brevity.

If Much of that Sort of news which depends interest to mankind. From merning to merning The sex prints a continued story of the lives of real mer and women, and of their deeds, hans, loves, hates, and troubles. Their story is more varied and more interesting than key romance that was ever devised.

111. Good writing in every column, and 10,150.00 ness, driginality, accuracy, and deporum in the IV Honest comment. THE SUN's habit is to

737.93 speak out fearlessly about men and things 200.00 V Equal candor in dening with each political party, and equal readiness to commend what is praise worthy or to rebake what is blamable in Democrat or Repnublica VI Absolute independence of partizan organizations, but unwavering loyalty to true Democratic principles. The Sun believes that the Gov rument which the Constitution gives us is a good one to keep. Its notion of duty is to resist to its $45,138.02 utmost power the efforts of men in the Republican party to set up another form of government in place of that which now exists. The year 1881 and the years immediately following will probably decole this supremely important contest. The Sun believes that the victory will be with the people as against the Rings for monopoly, the kings for plunder, and the Rings for imperial power.

Testerday afternoon a pontions looking colored man, wearing a veteren's badge over his heart, encountered in front of the City Hall a brother of color searing a small flag on his coat and trying to look as if he hal starved in Anderson wills for a year and a last.
